

SCENE STUDY WORKSHOP

Dates: Wednesday, July 30 and Thursday, July 31, 2025. This is a two-day workshop

Time: 6:00 – 9:00 PM both days

Location: Merely Underground, 789 Tech Center Drive

Instructor: Georgi Silverman

Ages: Adult (18 and above)

Tuition: $50.00

Using two-person scenes from contemporary plays, we will cover basic script analysis and characterization and explore ways of creating believable, compelling characters and relationship dynamics. This class is for all acting levels. Come exactly as you are with whatever acting or life experience you have, and learn some new tools that encourage spontaneity and freedom. Wear clothes that you can move in. Scenes will be provided.

MERELY INSTRUCTOR:

Georgi Silverman is a theatre artist with a multifaceted career as an actor, educator, and producer. She has worked in New York, New Hampshire, San Francisco, Houston, and now Durango, bringing a blend of classical training and contemporary experience to every stage she joins. Originally from San Francisco, Georgi moved to New York to complete a two-year classical actor training program at the National Shakespeare

Conservatory. Upon returning to the Bay Area, she co-founded a theatre company and performed in various local productions. She later returned to New York, where she worked with the Barrow Group Theatre Company and School, and completed the Barrow Group Teacher Training Program. Her teaching career has included work in Westchester County's afterschool programs, as well as teaching positions at the Stella Adler Conservatory and Fordham University. After relocating to Houston, Georgi co-founded Brave Dog Theater Company. Her approach to teaching and directing is rooted in classical technique, ensemble collaboration, and years of practical performance experience. Now based in Durango, Georgi performs with Lower Left Improv and Merely Players. She continues to find joy in storytelling, ensemble work, and arts education.
